economical, cultural relevance etc. has to be invariably kept in mind. In order to meet the above objective to a greater extent, certain methodology has been suggested as below:-

- The subject expert nominated shall prepare a draft syllabus of his/her area(s) of study. While doing so, he/she shall consult the syllabi of his/her and other reputed universities in order to have broader consultation. Detailed proforma is enclosed which has to be submitted along with draft syllabus (both hard and soft copy). TA/DA and Honorarium as per UGC TA/DA norms will be paid, for the final meeting.
- Each subject expert shall interact with other experts of the team as well as subject experts of other universities, while preparing the draft syllabus through e-mail, website, etc.
- This task being time bound, the subject experts are requested to take up the process of consultation seriously and prepare the draft syllabus within the time frame of three weeks.
- The NET Bureau has to deal with the revision of 77 subjects and intends to implement it as early as possible. Therefore, after time-bound preparation of draft syllabus by various subject experts in a time bound manner, the NET Bureau will organize 3-4 days' meeting of the entire team of subject experts in that particular subject for final discussion and for completing the preparation of final revised syllabus. Date and venue will be intimated separately. The list of subject experts nominated (team) for this assignment is enclosed as Annexure-I.
- In addition to the above, the team of experts are required to prepare model question papers based on the revised syllabus for both Paper-II (with answer keys) and Paper-III.
- As suggested by various Committees, the structure of paper-III has been reorganized. This aspect has to be kept in mind while preparing the revised syllabus. The new structure of paper-III is enclosed as Annexure-II. In addition, the existing syllabus is also enclosed as Annexure-III for your ready reference.

I shall be grateful for your valuable contribution in this national level task.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

(M.V. KRISHNASWAMY)

DEC

You were very kind to accept the request of the Commission to be a member of the Visiting Committee to Aligarh Muslim University for reviewing the progress of implementation of their VIIIth Five Year Plan and to discuss the IXth Plan requirements of the universities. The UGC has been tentatively informed about its IXth Plan allocation by the Planning Commission. In turn, the UGC has also informed the universities their tentative allocation and they have been requested to submit their final plans to the Commission within this tentative ceiling. Following upon the submissions of their Plan, we will hold Plan discussions with the universities.

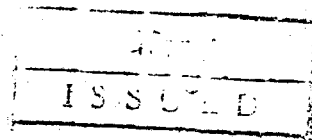

As one of the Experts of the Visiting Team, we will be very grateful if you could assist us in the final discussions with the university. The meeting has been fixed on 30.12.1997, at 10.30 A.M. in the office of the Commission at New Delhi. We shall be very grateful if you could attend the meeting on the date, time and venue as indicated above. We will find it very difficult to change the dates as our schedule for the universities is extremely tight. Our exercise has to be completed early enough, before the election period commencing on February 15th and, so that, all the grants are disbursed before the end of March, 1998.

You are aware that the University Grants Commission conducts the National Eligibility Test (NET) for Junior Research Fellowship and eligibility for Lectureship twice a year. The Test is designed to ascertain (a) the research and teaching aptitude, reasoning and comprehension ability of the candidates, (b) candidates' competence at the post-graduate level in the core and elective areas of the concerned subject. The Test consists of three papers: Paper-I, Paper-II and Paper-III. Paper-I is related to the testing of teaching and research aptitude while paper - II is objective type in the subject discipline followed by paper-III which covers subject areas related to the discipline.

I am pleased to intimate you that you have been identified as one of the members of the panel for paper setting for paper - II (objective) as well as paper - III (subject descriptive) in the subject:

HINDI

The workshop will be held from 20th Mar. to 23rd Mar. 2006 and will start at 09.30 A.M. at the following address :

University Grants Commission
National Educational Testing Bureau
South Campus, University of Delhi
Benito Juarez Road, New Delhi-110021

A copy of the guidelines for paper setting and terms and conditions in this regard are enclosed herewith (Annexures I&II). Kindly note that paper setting as well as translation work has to be completed in the scheduled period, as it can not be left incomplete.

As you understand well that the matter is strictly confidential in nature, you are requested to kindly act accordingly and keep this correspondence strictly confidential and not to share with others. Further, to maintain confidentiality by you for paper setting alongwith the material developed towards paper setting at the place of Workshop. This material will be sealed by the expert panel and kept in office only. The same will be handed over to expert panel next day to continue the work. Therefore, you are advised not to take any paper related to the paper setting of NET outside the premises.

Subject: Evaluation of proposals from college teachers for undertaking Minor Research Project - Reconsideration.

Madam,

Please find enclosed herewith fourteen Minor Research Project proposals together with the recommendation sheets signed by you. These include proposals under Hindi, Maithili and Tribal and Regional Languages.

These proposals have not been recommended for funding and the reason cited in each case is absence of synopsis. However, while preparing a list of projects which were not recommended, it has been observed that the synopses are attached with these projects. I thought you may like to go through the synopses, in case you missed the same. A fresh recommendation sheet is being attached with each proposal (as well as summary sheet).

I shall be highly obliged if you record your recommendations on the recommendation sheet as well as summary sheet. These may kindly be posted to UGC, ERO, Kolkata at your earliest since we are approaching the end of the financial year. A self-addressed envelope is also enclosed.

Thanking you in anticipation,
